

Living Out Faith in Ethical Nursing Practice

Scripture Focus:

Micah 6:8 – He has shown you, O man, what is good; And what does the Lord require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

1 Peter 3:15 – Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect.

Devotional Thought:

As nurses and healthcare professionals, we are called to navigate complex ethical dilemmas daily—whether it's respecting patient autonomy, maintaining professional boundaries, or advocating for those who cannot speak for themselves. Linking biblical principles with ethical principles equips us to respond with compassion, justice, and humility in challenging situations.

Reflection Questions:

- How does Micah 6:8 shape your approach to ethical decisions?
- What barriers keep you from advocating for patients, and how can faith help?
- How can you maintain professional boundaries while showing Christlike love?
- What steps can you take to care for yourself spiritually and physically?
- How can you share hope respectfully in a healthcare setting?

Closing Prayer:

Lord, help us to walk humbly, love mercy, and act justly in every decision we make. May Your Word guide our hearts and minds as we care for others with integrity and compassion. Amen.
